“ Sorry to read that your dear wife, daughter, mother, sister and friend. Has fallen asleep in death.I do not know your family. May God be with you during your time of bereavement. At a time like this, words can be comforting, but the pain can be unbearable. May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always. There is much comfort and hope in the Bible The promise found at John chapter 5: verse 28 and 29 There Jesus promise that there will be a resurrection. what a joyful time that will be when all who are in God's Memory will be resurrected back to life.

“ We were surprised and dismayed to hear of Gail's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. She was always so proud of her children and spoke of their accomplishments (and occasionally the mischief they were up to) with the glow that only comes to a mother's eyes. She loved you all very much.

What I will remember most was her attention to detail and deadlines, keeping my less-than-organized self on track, and her drive to educate herself to make a better life for herself and her family. She had my admiration.

On behalf of the museum staff and board of directors, please accept our condolences.

“ Keith & Family,

I had the pleasure of meeting Abby at SVCC while taking classes in taxation. She was a wonderful friend to me. She was always there to help me with homework and make sure I got the assignment if I had to miss a class. I just recently spoke with her about some tax questions and was so sad when I heard she was sick. I always told her how proud I was of her that she could get her degree and be such a good wife and mother. It's hard to go to school and take care of everything else. I ask her how she did it and she said because I have such a great husband. I will really miss her. I will keep you in my prayers.

“ Dear Keith, Jeffery, Emily, Billy, and Zack,

There are no words to express my feelings. Gail meant so much to me. She was much more than a friend - we were sisters joined by heart strings. She had a knack for making things ok - and for the days brighter. She was certainly one-of-a-kind!

Keith - there are so many wonderful memories of Gail - but my all-time favorite was your anniversary - the one where each of you tried to outdo the other. I know we've laughed about this over the past several days, but you have to admit - it was wonderful! She was THRILLED that she pulled one over on you! It was priceless! Classic Gail! Hold on to her memory - it will be something to cherish in the next few weeks. Please know that we are all here for you - even tough guys like you need one of Dad's stories to ease the pain every now and then. You have always held a very special place in his heart - just as Gail did. Don't think he's ever too busy to talk - just ask him to tell you about the "good ole days" when times were REALLY hard!!

Emily, I once told you that you would be a great mother. Just follow your mom's example and you'll be fine. She loved you so very much and was so proud of you. She once said she couldn't stay mad at you because you were so much like her! What a compliment!

Jeffery - hang onto your college dreams. It was very important to your mom that you attend Governor's School this summer - so don't let her down. She was so very proud of your creativity! She was especially proud of the comic book that you and Emily were working on.

Billy - you were always the little helper around the house. We talked about how energy-efficient you were and what a wonderful young man are. You have the light of your mother's eyes - so beautiful and kind.

Zack - I wish I could help you through these tough days. You are so very strong - but remember - even tough guys need to cry sometimes. You were Gail's little cyclone - the one who could out do the others and got hurt the most. Slow down a little bit and please don't grow up so fast! You are such a special little little guy.

Whenever you need something - or just need to talk - we're here. That's what friends are for (remember - mom makes a mean cup of coffee)!

You will be in our hearts and in our prayers. Keep looking upward - for one day - God will turn your mourning into dancing.

With love - and wonderful memories of my friend (who was also my sister-by- heart),

Lynne
