“ I miss you daily. I try so hard to overcome the pain that consumes me daily..it's just hard to do while seeing you in the home although you are gone. I sometimes get your favorite things at the store and then realize that you are gone so I take them back to the shelf. Maybe 1 day I will be Okay..just not today. I know you and dad are busy preparing my spot at yalls table, just so you know..I AM BEYOND READY! Happy Mother's Day Mom..I love you

“ Its hard to believe that this day has came. I will forever be thankful for you and our time together this past 12 years! The house won't be the same and you will always be missed..I bet Daddy was happy to see you! Its time to rest now ..we all know how tired you were! That wheelchair was traded for a limo made of gold, the pain was traded.fpr dignity and though I was traded my mom in the flash for An Angel Mom I am sad yet thankful that you will never suffer again. I love you Mom

“ I remember Agnes always had a smile on her face. She would always make you laugh. She had a heart of gold. She welcomed me in her home with open arms when I became friends with my sis Elizabeth Sims-Webb. She even visited my mom at her home when we grew up and moved out. I know she not suffering no more. She is her kids angels watching over them now. She will be truly missed by all that knew her. Rest in peace my friend/family.
