“ One of the most loving precious person in this world. She always knew when I just needed a friend and no matter what was going on she stop and just listen. She make you smile when you didnt think you could. The best worker you could have ever ask for. She would brighten up anyone day by just entering the room. That is a wonderful woman. Always worried more over her family and friends over herself. I will keep you and family close to our heart we love you Nikki you will never be forgotten.
