“ Jack was my barber from 1968 until the time he could not barber anymore. We shared many stories over the years and I always looked forward to seeing Jack. The barber shop was the men's gossip hangout for sure. Jack knew a bunch about local history and I sure did love hearing all the stories about local people he knew because of his work as a barber. He was so proud of Al and it was a joy when I would get a haircut when both of them were working together. I will miss my friend and wish I had known about his passing earlier. What a wonderful reunion it was when Jack met his family in heaven! Thank you for your friendship and the stories we shared. Jeff Johnson

“ When I first met Jack and Lucille she would always hug me and kiss me on the cheek and tell Jack I was her new boyfriend. He always grinned and said I Hear ya. Jack was one of the most gentle men I have ever met in my life. Great Husband, Father, Grandfather and Friend

“ As a little girl I remember Jack cutting my dad's hair at the barbar shop. I only had my dad until I was 13 but I have this wonderful memory that we shared together. I always begged to go with him. Jack was so kind then and over the last few years ,I had the pleasure to attend church with him. Heaven gained a wonderful angel. I pray for comfort for the family. My thoughts are with you.
