“ My sincere condolences to the Robinette family on their loss. I knew Mrs. Robinette from my marriage to her sister Agnes Rose's daughter, Geneva. I had met Mrs. Robinette several times during my marriage to Geneva, some under good circumstances and some not. I felt she liked me from the first time we met as I liked her. She was always very cheerful and would always have a kind word to say to me no matter the circumstances. She will be missed.

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.
