“ I had only got to know Amanda for a short time when she did her internship with us, but knew she was a very special young lady..never had an unkind word for anyone..and demonstrated skills to be a great asset to the therapy world and patients. Although I hadn't seen her since she left our facility, I have kept up with students from her class and was only recently informed of her illness. I am so sorry for your loss. She will be missed by many.

“ To Heather and Aaron and Family,

I am truly sorry to hear about your loss. All I know to say at this time is just always remember the great memories you had with her. And know that she is no longer suffering and she is in a better place. I lost my dad in 97 and God does give us that strength and peace of knowing they are okay and will always be with us. You all will be in my prayers during this time and throughout the coming days but remember for her "The Best Is Yet To Come"

“ Corky, Jean & Family -

Words are so inadequate at a time like this. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Having gone through the pain of loosing a child myself, I realize there is no other pain that hurts like the pain you are feeling right now. Please know that God's unchanging hand will guide you through the days that lie ahead and you will find strength in his love.

I am so sorry for your loss, Amanda was a dear friend to me. I have a lot of good memories to look back on and she was a huge part of them. She was a true friend to me when I felt like I had no friends. She never turned her back on me and was always there if I needed someone to talk to. I can never remember her mad or not wanting to befriend someone or just trying to cheer you up. I can not imagine what you must be feeling right now but always remember - God didn't promise days without pain, laughter without sorrow, sun without rain, but HE did promise strength for the day, comfort for the tears and light for the way. I just know that Amanda is now an angel she definitely was one here on earth and will be sadly missed. My prayers are with you and if there is anything I can do just let me know.

“ I was blessed to become acquainted with Amanda back in 2000 at SwVCC while working in financial aid. She became an instant friend and had the warmest smile I think I have ever seen. We shared many good times working together. She was such a wonderful person with such positive energy. I am proud and blessed to have known her. May God be with you during this trying time--she is truly an angel and will be missed greatly. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Justin and Family,

I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss of Amanda. I had the honor to work with Amanda in the classroom. She was a wonderful and delightful young lady. She enjoyed working with the Special Education students. They also enjoyed being around her. She will be greatly missed by everyone that she worked around. May the light of God's love show you the way through this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Amanda will be missed by a young boy, Cody, she treated through the school. Cody really liked Amanda. She was very kind and gentle with him. One week she found out he liked to play with remote control trucks but had trouble driving it because of his cerebral palsy. Amanda went out of her way to find material to help him use the remote. Cody always got a big smile on his face when she entered the room. Our thoughts and prayers are with all who loved her.

“ It is hard to put into words how devastated and lost I feel at Amanda's passing. I know she is in the loving arms of our Heavenly Father and this eases my sorrow. Amanda gave me strength and encouragement with my own recent diagnosis. She gave me confidence and invaluable advice that helped me cope. I will miss her cheerful smile.

My deepest sympathy go to her husband, Justin, and parents, Jean and Vonley Pruitt, and Heather and Stephen.

God has a plan for all of us, and it is not for us to question, Why. For Amanda, a lovely girl, now at rest.
