“ I am thinking of you Jesse! Your mom was so very proud of you and a beautiful person. Love, Ms. Carini.

Chelle Carini - July 04, 2015 at 07:36 PM

“ The first time Amanda seen me she asked my mom if I was a boy because my hair was so short. I also, will never forget the time once Halloween we all went to a haunted grave site and was looking for the ghost of Mr. Hankins, Uncle buster scared us so bad that she pissed all over our Aunt Sissy. She was always trying to make sure that everyone else was okay before herself. There isn't enough words in the world that would express the way I feel about Amanda I will love you always baby sister.

“ How many nights we stayed awake playing Scrabble online. You complaining because you could never beat me and how giddy you were when you finally did. I feel like I have known you forever. So glad during our late night talks I asked if you knew the Lord and you assured me that you did and that you were saved. That gives assurance to all who loved you that they will see you again if they too come to know Jesus and accept him as their savior. I love you sweet girl, may you sing with the angels until we meet again. God bless her family, especially little Jesse, he was her pride and joy. When she talked about him she just glowed. Connie, I guess as a mother I feel your heartbreak the most. May God be with you and comfort you during this time. Sincerely, Tammy Saxon (mother of Amanda Kimbrough Dehart)

My sincere sympathy is with all the family. My prayers are with each of you...especially Karen Lester, who I work with at AASC. I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. May God bless each of you with love and strength at this sad time. Cherish the memories you have of good times with her. Let me know if I can help in any way.

*Love and prayers,
