“ I am a cousin, I'd see Ann on occasion when she would bring her children down to Richlands. I helped her one day get a hotel room and I told Uncle Bob where they were staying. We went to Deskins, bought sandwich makings and fruits, milk, coffee, to take to Ann at the hotel. I left in my truck, it was a big snow on the ground, very cold too. My uncle Robert Holmes (Bob) stayed and made the sandwiches too and took care of the kids. Ann was so very tired from the long trip they'd made. I just loved Ann, she had the best personality and we had fun together.
