“ I could write a book of all the memories we have shared over the years and each one brings me happiness and a little bit of laughter. You were, are, and always will be the best big brother. You were there for me when no one else was and I hope you know how much I truly looked up to you and how thankful I was to have you. It is heartbreaking that I will have to go the rest of my lifetime without your one of a kind personality and heart. The truth is a lifetime with you still wouldn't have been enough, but the years and memories I was blessed with will always be cherished. I will miss you so much. I love you bub. You and dad will always be in my heart and a part of me.

I will never forget growing up with you. Sad that I had never have the chance to share a conversation about our families, and were life took us. You were a great guy sorry we lost touch . I hope your family finds peace in this difficult time.

“ I just can't believe you're gone. I don't want to believe it, don't want to accept it. My heart breaks thinking I will never laugh at you so hard my side hurts and you just keep talking. Keeping the room rolling. You will be missed by so many. Rest in peace with so much love and I WILL see you again.

“ To my dear sweet Liza Jane, Patsy Mae, Danielle, Ashley & Brad, and Jonathan & Miranda, I cant begin to tell you how sorry I am about your precious son..... 'sorry' is such a small word for such a great loss...a loss to Anthony's earthly family but certainly heaven's gain. I hope this little poem I've written will give you peace and comfort.

*As Anthony celebrates being with Jesus let's celebrate his life
Let's celebrate with happy memories and not of strife.*

*Through his baby girl, Patsy Mae, he will forever live
Even though he's not with us on earth his spirit continues to give.*

*So today your face to heaven lift
Be thankful for the loan of Anthony, your precious gift.*

*Know that it's okay to yearn for a glimpse of his dear smiling face
But also know that he's in a better place.*

Know that it's okay to show anger and shed a river of tears Know that it's part of the healing process to help cope with the loneliness and fears.

So bow your head in the most earnest prayer and say “Thank you dear God, 'ere the time be so short for sending him my way.”
