

Aria Mae Ward

June 6, 2015 - June 6, 2015

In Myrtle Beach, South Carolina on June 6, 2015 an angel was born sleeping. An angel in the book of life wrote down Aria Mae Ward's birth, then whispered as she closed the book "too beautiful for earth". So Aria very softly tiptoed into our world, and for the brief moment she was here, her footsteps have forever left an eternal imprint on our lives. Her loving parents, Stephanie Danielle Whitt Ward and Philip Michael Ward of Richlands, Virginia deeply grieve her loss and will be made stronger by her memories for a bond of love was formed as she grew in her mommies womb, and that love wove into her angels wings, that briefly brushed their lives forever. Our Aria grew angel wings that day and our little angel flew away, now God has her in his arms, while we have her in our hearts.

Aria will miss playing with her big sister and brother, Gabriella Marie Ward and P.J. Ward, but Jesus will hold her on his lap and tell her all about them and explain that she can now be their guardian angel. Jesus will gently rock her as the angel choir sings her lullabies that her grandparents, Michael and Darlene Ward never got the chance to do. Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord your soul to keep; within his arms he'll hold you tight, my heavenly Angel, my guiding light.

Aria Mae Ward will be laid to rest on Tuesday, June 9, 2014 at 5:00pm at the Greenhills Memory Gardens Mausoleum in Claypool Hill, Virginia with the Rev. Travis Tatum officiating. Her loving family will be her pallbearers and would like everyone to remember that each new life...no matter how fragile or brief...forever changes the world.

Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Richlands, Virginia is honored to assist with the arrangements and those wishing to express sympathy online may do so at www.hurstscottfuneralhomes.com.

“ Phillip and Stephanie PJ, Gabriella, Mike, and Darlene, Chaz and I are so very sorry to hear about little Baby Aria. We had no idea that you all were going through this loss and all the pain that goes with death. Everyday we waited to see you carrying her through the yard and at night when I would get up to help Chaz with his medical needs, I would look out the window and I would tell Chaz, "They haven't had the baby yet, all the vehicles are home." Then we would wait some more, right up until yesterday when Chaz asked Phillip and he told Chaz the baby had died." We got up yesterday morning laughing and joking as we often do to ease the daily suffering, and when we heard about Baby Aria, the laughter stopped. It was a sad day and although we don't know how the depth of your pain and sadness feels, we are still deeply saddened at your loss. If you need to talk or just need someone to sit in silence with you, we will do whatever we can to help you go through this because I know the grieving will go on as the days past, but yes Little Baby Aria is an angel and we will remember her as such and we send our deepest sympathies to you and we blow a kiss to Baby Aria in heaven! Love, Diana and Chaz Gilbert
