“ Gary Peters 11:03am Nov 7

Kathy - Beth just sent me a FB message that your mother passed away. While we mourn the passing of our loved ones we know His will is perfect. But the loss still hurts us. Vance Havner, the old country preacher made this statement at his wife's funeral: "You haven't lost anything when you know where it is. Death can hide but not divide." Sherry and I send our love, prayers, and support to you and Larry at this time. You know we love your family very much and you have been in our thoughts. God bless you. Let us know if you need anything.

"Psalm 27:4-5

One thing I ask of the LORD, this is what I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple. For in the day of trouble he will keep me safe in his dwelling; he will hide me in the shelter of his tabernacle and set me high upon a rock.

John 14:1-4

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going."

Psalm 30:5

"Weeping may remain for a night, but rejoicing comes in the morning."

*With all our prayers and love

“ Pauline,
Thinking and Praying for comfort for you and your family through this time.
I know it is hard to lose a loved one, and especially hard for daughters to lose their mother. The comfort comes from knowing she is with the Lord in a beautiful place and you will see her again one day.

God bless, and I will see you soon
