“ Aunt Bobbie

So sad to hear of your passing, I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers for a healing heart. It's so hard to let go of the ones you love. In my heart I know your where you want to be with a multitude of family around you right now , I know I will see you again and you are a true angle making heaven a much better place with your love and kindness. I will miss you and you will forever be on my mind and in my prayers I love you forever ...

“ MawMaw, it relieves me to know that you are reunited with PawPaw, Mom and Little Luther. I can't imagine the joy you had when they greeted you at Heaven's gate to welcome you home. I'll always remember the great times we had when I lived across the street from you and PawPaw. I'll never forget your macaroni and cheese!! I love you and I'll miss your sweet smile. I'll repeat what I said to Mom in her eulogy. I won't say good-bye, I'll just say, I'll see you later. I'm jealous of the angels tonight.

“ Aunt Bobbie, you will be missed so much. It was always such a wonderful feeling to come visit you. You were always so happy and made us feel so welcome and comfortable. One thing about Aunt Bobbie, you never left her home hungry and if you did it was your own fault. I remember the one time Pam and I stopped in to pull a prank on her and trust me she was surprised but she was happy it was just a prank and tickled to see both of us there. I will miss her famous words she always said "Isn't that so sweet". Will always love and miss you. I am going to plant a little rose bush in your honor this way I will always be reminded of you. Miss you give Uncle Luther and Barbara a hug for me and save a spot for me.
Love You,

“ Its hard to put in to words how much i will miss my second mom. I am so glad that i got to see her the times that i did. My son Colton from San Antonio Texas also enjoyed her warmth and motherly ways when he visited her the few times that he could. He thought she was real cool. She would always remind me of driving that car over the hill when i was young. She will forever be in my heart and on my mind. Love you Auntie.

Allen, I am very sorry for your loss of such a great woman. I remember the smiles on her face when I would take Damien by to visit with her when he was little. Heaven has gained an angel to watch over you.
