“ I don't need to tell you what a great person your mom was, but I will. She is a great inspiration to all who knew her. She had the stubborn streak of our grandmother Lowe. I know this because I have it also. "Don't tell me I can't, or quit while you are ahead, or say no to help someone", that is not in our vocabulary. I will miss her sense of humor and her laughter! I wish she had written the book that we always said she should have. My love and thoughts to all of you. Rest in peace old girl, you've earned it!!

“ Family,

My heart grieves with you at this time. I truly love your mother and all of you. You have been so special to Paul David and me your whole lives. Remember, "Whether we live, or whether we die, we are the Lord's." I sensed and know in my heart last night that Barbara had gone on to heaven. "Weeping comes for a season, but joy comes in the morning." Your mother was always a true lady and friend. She was very strong and brave her whole life. I love all of you.
