Dear Roger , Jordan , Courtney and Grand Children, I was so saddened to find out about Barbara's passing . She was such a lovely person with such a caring heart . I would happen to be visiting with Momal Pauline Church when Roger and Barbara would happen to be there also . Such a great family . She has now gone on to reap the rewards in heaven she worked so diligently for while here with us . I pray God will give each the comfort that is deserved. If I can be of any help , please don't hesitate contacting me . You have my deepest condolences , and rest assured the promise of being reunited again !!!
