

Betty Miller

August 19, 1937 - September 4, 2012

As the morning dawned on Tuesday, September 4, the call was given and an angel was dispatched to Road Ridge in Raven, Virginia to escort Betty Jane Miller home. In the very home she was born into on August 19, 1937 and drew her first breath of life, there she drew her last breath while surrounded by her loving family. Awaiting her at the gates of heaven was her loving husband, Jack and her son Russell, and together they escorted her into Heaven to reunite with all her friends and family. What a joy to see those who had gone on before her, her parents, Jonas and Laura Cordle Baldwin, her brothers, Robert, Elbert and Lee Baldwin along with her sisters, Dora Belle and Ora Nelle Baldwin. As God looked over her life, he reviewed her great attributes, what a loving wife she had been, a loving mother, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother and a true friend to many. She had dedicated her life to being a caregiver to others, always being there in their time of need. Her devotion to her family and church were truly amazing. She loved to volunteer her time to the church and felt like everyone there was her family. She never met a stranger; her heart was an open spring that bubbled of joy and love from within and trickled over to all who came in contact with her. Those who remain here to carry on her loving spirit are her: Daughters; Alice Crigger and husband Claude of Keen Mtn., VA Jackie Thompson and husband Chuck of Road Ridge, VA Brothers: Lindy Baldwin of Richlands, VA Don and Wife Patsy Baldwin of Baptist Valley, VA Andrew Baldwin of Ashville, NC Step-daughter, Becky Harris and husband Jeff of Marion, VA Special Sister-in-law, Liz

Baldwin Gibson of Richlands, VA Grandchildren: Jacob Miller and wife Ashley, Cala Crigger Slone, Joshua Crigger, Alisha Sisk and husband, JD, Kristin Smith, Hunter Miller, Ryan Thompson and Jarius Miller. Great-Grandchildren, Elora Belle Sisk and Gabriel Jack Sisk Funeral services for Betty Jane Miller will be conducted at 2:00 pm on Friday, September 7, 2012 at the Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Richlands, Virginia with the Pastor Ethel Watson and Claude Crigger officiating. Interment will follow at the Greenhills Memory Gardens in Claypool Hill, Virginia. Serving as pallbearers will be daughters and grandchildren. Friends may call after 6:00 pm on Thursday evening at the Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Richlands, Virginia to celebrate with the family the joyful life of Betty Miller. “ *Jackie
Today is 9-12-12 and I just found out about your mom. I am so sorry for you and your family. I know your mom is in a better place because there was no better person than her. You had a special mommy. You take care. We had some special times in our day, memories I'm sure neither of us will forget.*

“ Dear Alice and Family,

I just read of the death of your mom. I am so sorry. She had to be a great person to have had such a sweet daughter, one that I will never forget.

I know how difficult it is to lose a mom and a grandmother. I pray that you and yours will feel the arms of Jesus around you and give you the assurance of knowing that he has His arms around your mom now. As the saying goes, she can't come back to you , but you and yours can go to her someday.

Love you.

“ Mrs. Miller was one of the most gentle, kind, caring and sincere women I have ever met. She always welcomed me into her home with thoughtfulness and love. She reminded me a lot of my own mother, and was the mother of my best friend on Earth, even to this day. She raised her children to believe in, and follow God, and, just like her, Alice is one of the sweetest people I know. Named after her mother, Alice Jane Miller and I were roommates in college, and have shared many memorable occasions together, even into our adult lives. I love her as my own sister, and her mother and dad, as well. Betty missed Jack so much following his death. She has grieved for Russell, her son, in a way no one could ever understand but a mother. Now she is in the loving arms of God, and is rejoicing with Jack and Russell, along with her mother, dad, brothers and sisters who have passed before her. We will all be together in Heaven again some day, and what a wonderful time we will have!!
Goodbye, Mrs. Miller, for now.

“ Dear Alice and Jackie, I am so very sorry for the loss of your mom and all the losses you have endured in the past few years. We all grew up together, like family and shared so much, I miss those times, I wish we could have them back and all our loved ones too. And Betty's obituary was absolutely beautiful, it fit her perfectly. You are in my heart and I will be praying for you.
