“ Ann,

In checking the obits online this week, I was sorry to see that your mother had joined the church triumphant. As I remember her, she was always a nice lady and was always considerate and respectful of me. I know you will miss her - our parent's generation is quickly passing on and we certainly miss them.

My condolences to you and your children at this time.

“ Dear Family and Friends,

Please except my sincere condolences.

Death is such a hard thing to understand and accept, especially when it is someone close to us.

It can raise many questions in our minds and hearts such as; why do we grow old and die when there are trees and plant life that live for hundreds of years? And will we ever get to see our dead loved one again and if so where and when?

Thankfully, there are satisfying answers to these questions in God's Word the Bible.

At your convenience please read: John Chap. 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4.

If you have any questions regarding these scriptures or would just like to talk, feel free to email me at the above address.

*Sincerely,
Debbie*
