October 27, 1927 - July 11, 2014

Beverly Junior "B.J." Rose, 86, of Farmer Street, Richlands, Virginia, went home to be with his Lord and Savior peacefully on the morning of July 11, 2014 at the home of his daughter and son-in-law.

B.J. was born in Cedar Bluff, Virginia on October 27, 1927 to the late George Beverly and Eva Ocie Stephenson Rose. His young years were spent farming with his father.

He served his country in the United States Army as a mechanic and sniper. His decorations and citations included the World War II Victory Medal. After his Army discharge he worked in the mines at Jewell Ridge Coal Company.

B.J. and Dot were married on April 28, 1951 and for 54 years they have served God and are members of the First Assembly of God Church in Richlands, Virginia. In 1962 B.J. took a position with S & S Machinery / Ingersol-Rand. He retired after 23 years in 1985 and became a self-employed carpenter. From 1981 to 2014, B.J. was a proud supporter of both his wife and daughter's Mary Kay business. In 1996, the family started their motorhome travel phase. B.J. loved the co-pilot seat beside his son-in-law traveling all over the United States.

B.J. was preceded in death by his father in 1958, his mother in 1976, and by all of his 12 siblings.

He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Dorothy "Dot" Rose.
