“ I'm happy to call you Dad. That has special meaning to me as someone who's helped me grow, been there in tough times, laughed a lot, and left a lasting mark in me. Thank you so much for blessing our lives and having a wonderful daughter in Cheryl that grew up to marry me. I'll always remember your energy doing yardwork you so enjoyed, golfing, Canasta games at Crystal's, and especially the love you have for everyone around you. You're gone from us physically, but your spirit is in all of us. Enjoy the party up there, give my mom a hug for me, and we'll see you again one day. Love David

“ My grandpa and I have shared many many memories together, from fishing to sports to just spending quality time together. I will never forget the Unconn Huskies mascot coming over and sitting in his lap during the game. Shocked him but I laughed so hard I cried. I loved to sing to and for him and he enjoyed it so much. Love and miss you always. Becky
