

Bonnie Lea Meadows

August 21, 1940 - March 26, 2019

Bonnie Lee Barnes Meadows age 78, passed away at Dogwood Crossing Assisted Living and Memory Care in Tazewell Virginia after suffering from a lengthy illness.

She grew up and lived at Jewell Ridge on Middle Creek until she and her husband moved their young family to Midland, VA in Fauquier County VA; she was 27. Several years later she moved to Stafford VA. During her lifetime she worked in manufacturing, waitressing, and caregiving. She was 70 years old when she became unable to continue working. Her last position was with a catering company, that catered to the Marines stationed at the Quantico Marine base in Prince William County. She moved back to Richlands in 2011. Bonnie went through many chapters throughout her life, and one could say, there was never a dull moment. She loved children and playing with them. "Though she be but little, she is fierce" by William Shakespeare describes the little woman that we called mom and/or Grandma Bonnie. As a child, she loved to pull pranks on the other children. As a young mother, she played along with her children and was sometimes as mischievous as they were. She was a hard worker and loved to have fun too. She loved animals and always fed the birds and squirrels. She also loved and missed her cat dearly but had to leave him behind. We will always miss and love this little woman, and we thank God that her suffering is over.

She was born August 21, 1940, and was the daughter of late Thelma Lucille Mitchell Barnes Brown and Marshall Kermit Barnes. She grew up in the home of her maternal grandparents, the late James, and Barbara Ethel Mitchell in Jewell Ridge, Virginia. Her aunt, Hazel Mitchell, was like a mother to her. She also had a step-father, Robert Brown, and her step-mother was Louise Barnes.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Howard Avery Meadows; Son, Randal Perry Meadows; Daughter, Donna Gail Meadows Abel, and husband Jerry Abel; Sister, Kathy Barnes Gilbert

Those who remain to carry on her spirit are:

Son: Harold Lee Meadows and wife Judy of Remington, VA

Daughter: Diana Lynn Stinson, and husband Billy of Cedar Bluff, VA
