“ I am so sorry to hear this news and send my thoughts and prayers to each of you. I have many wonderful and fond memories of Brenda from our days at Richlands Middle School. We all shared a lot of joy and laughter over the years, plus were there to help each other through some sad times. Brenda was one of a kind and would do anything she could for people. She loved her family and extended family with every ounce of her being, and I know that your hearts are broken. But, rest assured that Brenda is in Heaven having a joyful reunion with all her loved ones who have gone on before. May God bring comfort and peace to you in the time ahead.

“ I worked many years with Brenda at RMS, and she was the best worker I have ever known. In addition, it was an honor that she was my friend! She helped me cope with some difficult times in my life, and no one gave better support and encouragement. To the family, I send love and prayers for God's strength and comfort. Her faith was so strong, that it gives all of us hope for tomorrow.
