“ My dear sweet aunt Brenda, not a day goes by I don't think of you. I have so many memories I have no clue which is my favorite. You were so much like papaw Marshall, a heart of gold, not a bad word to say about anyone. Everytime I see a yard sale a think about stopping but I just can't go wo you. I think of our last big yard sale day lol we had the van full of stuff, I had such a great day and I think you did to, we laughed and went everywhere. My heart hurts, it hurts for myself, my momma, the closest thing to a sister that I will ever have and I thank you for her, the boys, my aunts and uncle, David, and those beautiful grandchildren who I know you loved more than life itself, in my heart I know those 4 angels we are so lucky to have are what made you fight so hard for so long and I know you were so tired, I also know you are in heaven holding my brother, smiling that smile with mamaw, papaw, uncle Jerry and the rest of our angels but even knowing that it still is so hard to let you go... Did you see all the people who showed up and loved you so much? You have truly been a blessing in my life and I love and miss you more everyday.. Fly high my beautiful angel, I will see you again..

Thank everyone for your prayers, thoughts, flowers, donations, and just being there when my family needed you, True friends are hard to find, but our family sure do have alot of them... God bless you all...

“ Amanda and family, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your Mother. I had the pleasure of being her friend and working with Brenda, always a smile and a happy person, she talked of her children and family so much you could hear the love in her voice. She absolutely loved going to yard sales. I thought of her this morning when I woke up and prayed for the family. Her battle is over, she finished her race and fought a good battle. She did not go alone when she took her last breath, God's word tells us he will be with us to the end. And I know from experience of losing my own Mother, your hearts are so heavy and sadden during this sad and difficult time. Brenda took her love for each of you with her in her heart, and she also left her love in each of your hearts to cherish and to keep of fond memories to look back on. Brenda is at peace now with no more pain or suffering. Each of you are in my prayers, may you all feel God's comfort, peace and strength and most of all God's love today, weeks, months and forever.
