“ To Bruce's family. We just learned of Bruce's passing last night. We loved Bruce and we were neighbors growing up and I think I graduated high school with Wayne, not sure though. The last time spent with Bruce was at the Raven Reunions we had. My husband said last night.... oh I was just thinking of going to see him the other day. We lost our son, Mark and his service was on Sunday also and we struggling too. Our sincere love and prayers are with you at this time. Bill Ray, aka Tuck, and Naomi Joyce.

“ Bruce was a wonderful childhood friend, then when FB was started we found each other again. we became best of friends again and talked about the good old days. He always came to see me at the local festivals when I was back in the area. I have many wonderful memories of Bruce and his family.
I pray that the Comforter will abide with his family and loved ones.

“ To Bruce's family. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. I was a classmate of his at Richlands High School. We graduate together in 1965. Bruce was a great classmate, also willing to lend a helpful hand when ever he could. I enjoyed seeing him at our class reunions. He will be sadly missed. Our prayers are with each of you.
