“ We were very saddened to learn of Mr. Whitt's passing. He was a very kind, friendly, and generous man, always thinking of others. He, his smile, and wave to his neighbors will be sorely missed in our community.
To Lena, his children, grandchildren, and many extended family members and friends, you will be in our prayers for God to give you the peace and answers you seek.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with your family. Carl is a good man and a great person to be around. He always made me laugh. I have alot of memories of him and the TCH maintenance crew (Carl, Lonnie, Eric, Homer,and David) we never had a dual moment or a smokeless one. He will be surely missed. May God comfort each of you and surround your with his love and grace.
