“ Carol and i are cousins and we grew up together (mostly in Cleveland). We spend countless hours together there and then later in Virginia when my dad Burl and her dad Howard (brothers) moved back to work in the coal mines. She was so kind and so funny! We spent lots of time together when we were in our early to late 20's We didnt see eacch other that often after i moved to florida. Small world - we actually ran into each other in a rest stop in south carolina in the ladies room! I loved her dearly. Rest in peace Carol. Tell your Mom and Dad and my Dad hi. They will welcome you with loving arms.
