“ Though we only recently got to know Charlene, she brought a special joy to us her with her smile, to see her joking with Aaron and Darlene, to hear her spirit of a positive outlook during a difficult struggle. She was an inspirational person, and her spirit lives on in the many, many people she inspired by how she lived her life. She loved the Lord and looked forward to being with Him. No doubt she is a very special guest at the banquet table this day. She will be missed by all, but she leaves a legacy of love in which we all share, just as we share in the body and blood of Christ. She is now united with Him, freed from human boundaries and problems. The seeds of her joy have been planted in many hearts. Our prayers are with the family during this time of complex emotions. God bless you and hold you in the palm of his hand.

“ We never met but will be introduced by Jesus someday! Are related through our Moms. We are on the West coast. Really enjoyed getting to know Eleanor, Charlene and Charles in this past years and through this unfortunate experience with cousin Charlene. So happy she is in peace and complete fulfillment with our Lord now.

“ There are many memories of my aunt that make me smile when I reflect upon them. She truly enjoyed life and during the times I spent alone with her she encouraged me to do the same. No one loved my mother more than I, except perhaps her sister - Aunt Charlie. The world is less full of life without her. I shall miss her.
