“ I met Charles only briefly, but I learned a great deal about him from my Mamaw, Jo Edith Stevens. When she told of how Charles, in junior high, would walk her home from church, miles and miles out of his way, her eyes would twinkle and she couldn't stop smiling. I'm grateful they reconnected again, grateful they were able to see one another through their respective pain and sadness and find some semblance of happiness in their final years. Dear sir, I light this candle for you from Jo Edith because she no longer can. Rest easy now, your pain is over.
