“ Wayne was a kind man with always a kind word to me. He worked hard and when you needed any repairs he would help you and never ask for a monetary reward. God has chosen to bring Wayne home, but did so way too soon. God bless you Wayne. You will be missed my friend.

Wayne was a man who would give you help when needed for absolutely no monetary reward. He worked hard and always had a kind word. God asked for this man to join him but did so way too soon. May God watch over him. We will miss you.
