“ Dear Constance, I don't usually go an look at these things but I did this time. Largely because you have been such a great co-worker, always plesant and helpful that I was curious about "from whence you came." I first glanced at the many tributes shared and thought to myself, "Wow, there are a lot." Then I read what you dad did for so many years. I'm guessing that under the cloak of "Barbering" he was friend & counselor to many. Blessings to you and your family right now.

“ Thoughts and prayers to your family. Charlie has cut my hair for close to 40 years. I can remember him cutting my hair as a young boy. He even tied my brother in the chair once to give him a haircut, and that would bring up a laugh quite often. I will miss the handshake every time I walked in the barber shop and the distinctive way he answered the phone when it rang.

“ I have known Charlie for over 30 years and found him to be very thoughtful person with a great sense of humor. Somehow you always came away feeling better about things after you ran into Charlie. I was always amazed how versatile Charlie was. He wasn't afraid to try anything. He was in the satellite business, own a construction company, did auto repair, a car salesman and a barber, just to name a few. He was always hustling. But most of all, he was always honest in his business practices.

Charlie was a force in establishing the veteran's memorial in Rocky Gap and he was always concern about his community.

I know the thing that Charlie was most proud of was his family. He was always speaking of how well he daughters were doing and he was especially proud of his new granddaughter. It is obvious, Cathy was his rock, for they had accomplished so much together.

I feel privileged for have knowing Charlie and I will miss him.
