“ Terry,

I am so sorry for your loss. Your dad was a wonderful person and I loved him very much. He will be greatly missed. He always made people smile. I feel blessed to have known him. I know how difficult it is to have lost a father. Just keep in mind we will see them again another day on the other side. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I could not make it to the funeral home because of sickness. If you need anything please let me know..Kim

“ I wanted to let all of you know how very sorry I am for your loss. Charlie will truly be missed by everyone who knew him no matter where they crossed his path in life. Charlie was such a giver in life and everytime I saw him he always offered me a smile. I pray that your hearts be full of peace and that God wraps his arms of comfort around you in this most sorrowful time.
