“ Uncle Chester was one of the most caring and compassionate men I knew. During the past few months he had been very supportive to myself, and my brothers during the illness of our father(his brother). He rarely left our, or my fathers side. Words would never express my gratitude. My thought and prayers are with Mike and Billy, and the rest of the family.

“ Billy, Shirley, Michael and Serena and children.

Our deepest and sincere sympathy in the loss of Chester, words can not express our sorrow for the family. I talked with Chester not too long ago and he said he was doing good, he looked and sounded really well that day. Kathy and Chester were so close to me when we worked at Mattie and WSC. Kathy was like my sister, her and Chester were like family.

Our prayer is that God will give each of you comfort in knowing Chester is gone to be with God and Kathy. Love

Pat and Jerry Warner
