“ To all of Mackie's family I am so very sorry for Mackie's passing. We can trust he is with God and all our other family that has passed before. There is little I can say to give you comfort other than You are in my prayers and Mackie is in a better place where we will one day see him again.

Love You All

“ Joy and I have been friends of the Hortons for more years than I can count. Grat was my best friend, and losing Mack is like losing part of our family. We will miss him, but we rejoice in knowing that he is with beloved family that have gone on before, and we look forward to a happy reunion with him when we all gather there. Joy and I pray that the family uses this opportunity to draw closer to Jesus and to each other, and will continue to pray for each one of you.

Love,

“ I will always remember Mac in a special
He and I were were very close in age.
He was always reaching out to others and loved to do projects in wood work that he used in his home and I know he made things for his siblings.

Our sympathy and prayers go out to all of you. May you be encouraged that Jesus went through the "fire with him" and delivered him into the Father's hands where sickness nor sorrow will be in his life but only praise and love that he is now home with the Lord.

“ I will never forget after getting saved I started going to church at the Richlands Tabernacle- I went home after church one night and told Tony about a man and his wife that sat near me and the man seemed like he knew who I was because he took his knuckles and rubbed the top of my head, kinda hard - Tony laughed and said "That was Macky Horton- get use to it, there will be more where that came from!" - Tony's memories of Mack were of him always 'picking' on him as a boy - and I guess mine are the same!! My prayers are with you all. Terri

“ To Shirley,Robin,Christine and all of the Horton's. We are sorry to learn of Mack's death. He certainly did "fight the battle well". No matter how he felt he always had that great smile. Take comfort in knowing he has no more battles to fight. May God comfort and guide you in the days ahead as you cope with your loss. He'll always be with you in your heart. Sorry we could not get by the funeral home but we have you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Shirley and Robin,
Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers at this most difficult time.My prayer is that the Lord place His arms around you and guide you safely through this rocky way. I will truly miss my chats with Mac on election days. But the Lord will receive such pleasure from having him with Him. I am so sorry that I am unable to come by and offer my sorrow to you in person, but know that you are indeed in my prayers. Much love to you, “ Robin, Shirley, and Christine. I can only start to imagine the pain and sorrow you must be feeling. I know as wife and daughter it would be unbearable, but I also know that God is with you and will give you strength. I pray that God will give you eyes to see beyond the clouds of earth into the glory of heaven and the peace that comes from knowing that the one you love is there in His arms. Our deepest sympathy for your sorrow and our prayers are with you. John 14:1-3 says " Let not your heart be troubled...I go to prepare a place for you...that where I am, there ye may be also." All our love and prayers are with each of you.
