“ Chris was a great man and a good friend. He was strong and resolute in his devotion to both God and country. He stood for everything right in this world and I feel so fortunate to have had to privilege to know him and work beside him. He will be dearly missed by me and his entire family at Steve Ward & Associates. May his soul rest in peace as he lives with his Father in heaven now.

*Sincerest regards,
Andrew Ward*

“ *There are no words that we can offer that will help ease the pain of such a tremendous loss. We certainly will miss Chris, he was such a talented man and a very hard worker.. He lived his life so that you knew exactly what his opinion was, he always said God was first and family next. May God comfort your hearts now and in the days ahead and may you find peace that only comes from him. We are so thankful to have had the honor to call Chris our friend. We shall miss you neighbor!!! “ Chris came into my life when I married his brother Michael. He was a young teenager he was spoiled, ,outspoken rude and sometimes rowdy but he was the baby his mother and siblings worshipped him . As time pass by he grew into a hard working young man and was a joy to be around. After I divorced his brother I was still considered family by all of the Rife family when I seen him in town we would hug talk and laugh. I love my Rife family and I will miss him dearly may you rest in peace my dear brother

“ Chris came into my life when I was 4 years old when his brother married my mother. Being only 10 yrs older than I. He never treated me any different than his biological nieces and nephews. As I got older I just thought he was so cool and my friends thought he was so hot! He tried to teach me how to throw and catch a football but he soon learned that was not working out cause every time he threw it to me it smacked me dead in the face. He was a good guy with a big heart. He never failed to wish me happy holidays or send birthday wishes on Facebook. What a blessing it was to have him in my life. What an honor it was to be able to call him my uncle. He will be missed by many
Love you always
