“ Dorothy, I am so sorry about Cindy. She was such a sweet person. I hadn't seen her since I got married at Yost Chapel in 1984 and was just wondering how I can help. I lost mommy, Barbara Brooks, in 2005 and it has been hard being without her.

If I can be of help, or you would like to call please do. Daddy, Don Brooks, would love to hear from you also.

“ Dorothy and Joe,
My heart goes out to you. I did not know Cindy but Mom always talked of your kids and what they were doing in life, as if they were their grandkids.

Hope God will ease your pain.

My thoughts are with you.

“ Joe, Dorothy & Bobby,
I am so sorry that I couldn't be there today. I wanted you to know that you have been in my thoughts and prayers since I learned of Cindy's illness. Rely on God, he will carry you through this very difficult time and heal your broken heart. Take comfort in knowing that Cindy is in Heaven and no longer suffering and you will see her again someday.

My whole family sends their deepest Sympathy. Love, Shelia

“ Mr and Mrs Baldwin and Floyd. I am deeply saddened by Cindy's passing and wish to extend my condolences. It is always to shock to lose someone and all of us in the class of '87 were very close and Cindy will truly be missed. Even though I havent talked to Cindy in years it is still heartbreaking because I have known her my whole life. May Gods love and guidance bring you through these difficult times.
