“ To the Stump Family
So sorry to hear about your Dad. Our prayers are that God will comfort you in this most difficult time. I can remember coming to your house when you lived on Buchanan Street so many years ago, I know you probably won't remember me, but your parents were such good people, and I surely loved to come up there. We just lived on the corner of 4th Street.
Just wanted you to know I would be praying for you. May God richly bless each of you. Give your Mother a hug for me. In loving friendship, Pat & Jerry Warner
