“ Have lots of fond memories from the 60's when many of us relocated to Maryland and/or DC for work. Ellis was resolute in his convictions and was not hesitant to speak his mind but, ultimately, a mild-mannered gentleman.....well thought of among his peers. He will be greatly missed. I'm sure Kenny Fields will share some good "stories" during the celebration of his life tomorrow. My deepest sympathy: Terry, Lavonne, Kevin, Dottie (and extended family)
