“ Dear Clifton,

Day by day; are unspoken words with each spoken blessings. With out that, I wouldn't have came to know and too grow with an amazing uncle. My best friend, an angel to watch down on us. He was so proud to know we all had a goal, that we was making improvements.

Dear _____

Just know that you where; correct me you are a special person in the world. You always worried and was suffering if you couldn't help. So know we love you, and now you ain't suffering and you now are in peace fly high.

"Remember cole you nicked named me sugar bear before you left..... amen. "

“ Where do I begin with memories!? We had so many growing up from burning down the tree house to finding granddaddies cigs for him that grandma hid to picking wild berries and creek swimming and climbing in the old buildings to grandma fussing at us to get switches. I cant believe you are gone you looked so good the last time I saw you! Love you forever fly high ~Molly~
