“ Papaw Clyde was the rock of our family. He was an extraordinary person not only to our family but to everyone who crossed his path. He never met a stranger and treated everyone with the same respect. He never had much in life but was a sacrificial giver and he would give anything he had if he knew someone was in need. He loved big and he laughed out loud. He lived a life totally devoted, to what he would say his "Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." He was a true example of a Christian man. I can only hope I can have that same testimony.

I know it feels like our family has suffered a loss, but as Rev. Max Lunkous always said, "a thing is not lost if we know where it is". It may seem like a loss to us, but he is not lost; he is resting in the arms of Jesus, awaiting his eternal reward.

“ We are saddened at Bro Clyde's Passing. Our prayers are with his wife, Sister Becky and all his family. Jerry worked with Bro. Clyde in the mines and said he let his light shine even in the darkness of the mines. We always looked forward to being in church service with Bro. Clyde and all of the New Life Ministry family. We always felt at home when we were in service with them. May God send peace and comfort to Sister Becky and Bro. David and all the family. You all are in our prayers always. Love you all Jerry and Sharon Shortridge.

“ Clyde was my granny's (Myrtle Osborne) half brother. They looked very much alike. I last saw Clyde 2 years ago at my cousin's funeral. I loved talking to Clyde. He knew a lot of the family history and now it's gone. My heart is broken.
