“ Nobody that wasn't raised with us in Amonate in those days will ever know the joy that we had. We didn't have to have entertainment we made our own every day either fishing, hunting, playing tackle football in the church yard, basketball, it was such a great time to grow up. So many have left us far to soon but as the years pass by I know it wont be long until we are all together again. Rest in peace my brother.

“ Dale was tired of fighting, and was ready to go to be with Jesus. He said so many times in the few hours I was with him. I prayed for God to give Dale comfort, to do what was best for Dale. He was suffering, but suffers no more. RIP to Bill and family.
