“ I wasn't much older than Dana. Although she grew up and went to school with my younger sister mostly. She was a very sweet, beautiful young girl. Shes truly missed. I'm truly sorry for you all and if you all ever need anything give us a call if at all possible we will help in any way we can. Again sorry for your loss. Our hearts ache too for we remember her as child bouncing and carefree on the playground at Boyd's Chapel Church.

“ Dear Lisa,

Hi! I just want to say I am so sorry! about your loss. my heart goes out to you and your family. I know Dana loved you so much. she told me you were her best friend, and she loved your husband too, Dana told me Randy has been there for her since she was a child, and that he would do anything for her. I just found out today about Dana and my heart is broke, I have no idea what you're going through but I pray God be with you everyday to help you I know you need it. I remember the first day working with Dana at Thompson Valley Grocery...she was a great worker but not only that she became a very close friend to me. she became like a sister that I never had. we talked about several things that when she had told me that you were her best friend that she could talk to you and tell you anything and you always would understand and have a great answer. and that Randy was the greatest step dad in the world that he would kill for her as a figure of speech. I remember bringing my little girl to work with me and she was sick not feeling good and she told me that she was cold so Dana stopped what she was doing and went to her car and got Megan a blanket. she still has that blanket I will never get rid of it. Dana asked Megan if that blanket would make it all better and Meggie said yes.....Dana said you can have it Baby and talked to Megan about her lil cousins or nieces or some kids kin to her that she loved so much. that at their birthdays she never just bought for the birthday girl or boy but she bought for both..then Dana went back cleaning shelves Megan looked at me and said Momma who's that girl??? I love her momma. Lisa your Daughter was a wonderful person, what time I got to work with her I will never forget. I don't have any friends I stay at home to myself and with Dana at work I was always excited and ready for the next day of work so I could be there with her and have a real friend to talk to like her she was always understanding to talk to also. I will never forget that week that she was going to the lake with her boyfriend and I could tell something was really bothering her, so Bobby had left and I had her sit down and talk to me and she was telling me about wearing a 2 piece bathing suite that she never felt like she would look good in one, I said Dana girlfriend you are so silly you are beautiful and you will look nice in a 2 piece bathing suite thats when she told me, her boyfriend said she would look good in a 2 piece i said see there i told you she's like well he would say that regardless..true he would cause he loves her but i always got on to her she was always downing herself.she reminded me so much of myself when i was her age...I love her so much i wish that i could tell her one more time that though.Lisa your Daughter might be gone but she will never be forgotten.I will think of her everyday of my life I miss her so much and I'm so sorry i missed the funeral. when she had got back from the lake me and her both looked like red beets hers was from the sun and mine from the tanning bed. she was hurting i took her and put some aloe vera and solarcane on her it helped her a lot.she was such a beautiful girl i will never forget the day she came in the store and needed a check cashed and i never had enough in my drawer she looked so pretty, then you came in and told me she was your daughter then i thought no wonder she's so pretty. she took after her mother. Lisa if there is anything you need that i can do please let me know,i hope my words or note has not torn you up i just wanted to share some of the wonderful times i had with your daughter.i will never forget her...I'm Sorry!from the bottom of my heart. Sincerely, Natasha C. White “ Words can never express the proper emotions at such a time as this. The loss of anyone dear to us is hard but when one so young is taken unexpectedly it is doubly hard. Our heartfelt sympathies go out to all of Dana's family and especially to my cousin Lisa, her Mother. May God bless you all and keep you safe and protected. If we can help in any way at all, please let us know. Peace be with you.

“ To: Parents of Dana Lynn Asbury
I know that words can't remove what you are feeling in your heart with your sudden lost. There is a deeper reason for your broken heart and your tears, it is your love for Dana. The only way Pam and I would know this is that we lost our only child " Jason Elswick" eleven months ago in a car accident. We may never know for sure if our children's paths crossed at school, but I can say for sure now, their paths have crossed in heaven. Pam & I hope you find strength ifrom others, God, His Sonand His Word for the Bible says " Thou numberest my wanderings and put my tears into thy bottle. Are they not in thy book"

“ Words can not begin to express our sorrow for your family. You see our son went home to be with the LORD Monday morning also. We know our son is in heaven right now and we pray that Dana is there with Him. We will pray and ask Adam to watch over her. Our thoughts and prayers are with you as we all struggle through these times together. We know what you are going through.
With heartfelt sympathy,
