“ David you were one hell of a husband. I can only share this respect with others as I told you face to face. You and Barbara first met at church when she was only 12. After church she told me how much she like talking to you. Over all these years the love that was there stay the same. Never fading only growing stronger. When Barbara past you told me how lucky you had been having her as your wife. David, Barbara was so lucky to have you in her Life. This was a true LOVE STORY. WE will miss you my friend.
