“ I knew David as a little boy when I was i CNA class with his Mom. Lisa and I became quick friend's and have remained through many year's. David was a cute and sweet little boy who loved to come and visit me and me to visit them. He was alway's anxious to show me something new or tell me what he liked to do. His little sister came later and brightened my life as well.
I lost touch with David after he grew up but I know that he turned out to be a sweet young man, loving son, brother, husband and Dad. David will be missed greatly but I will alway's cherish and treasure the memories. May you Rest Peacefully with the Beautiful Angel's in Heaven smiling down on us everyday 💜
