“ David

I'll NEVER forget how we met!

It's hard to believe we became friends after that fight. What a friendship it was. Times I'll ALWAYS remember. Thanks for being there for me man. Too bad LIFE caused us to go separate ways as we got older.

I'll always remember you.

You will ALWAYS be my Brother!

“ As President of the T.H.S. Class of 1975, I would like to extend my sympathies from each of us to you and your family in your loss. David was such a dear friend to us and he will be sadly missed. Life is very short and we should make every day count. David did just that. His wit and humor brought smiles to our faces as we trudged through four years of school. His unique grin always told us that his mind was racing to see how he could lighten the tension of an otherwise dreary day.

But more than that, David was a true friend. He never turned his back on anyone who needed a smile or a kind word. He never failed to offer words of encouragement and never forget to thank someone when they offered the same words to him. Although it has been many years since our days at THS, David is one of those people who remain in thought when his name is mentioned. Now that he has gone to a better place, his name and memory will be cherished for many years.

Please know that you and yours are in our thoughts and prayers and near our hearts. Realize that although we cannot truly understand the loss that you feel because you knew David in a different manner than we, we still feel a loss and there will always be an empty space inside our hearts. But we must also realize that David has gone to be with the others from our class who have departed this world and life and are waiting for the day when we can join them to be truly together again.

Please accept our deepest love and sympathy.

“ I was adrift on waves of feelings Swirling circles about my mind Wondering if I had the strength to know it was your time Was I wrong in thinking of myself? While you grew so frail and weak Was I selfish in my desperate need to have you here with me to keep?
Into your eyes I searched and found within your soul the echo of a far seen wisdom The kind which only angels know. You gently eased my broken heart and with angelic calm you lifted all the guilt for wanting to hold on. You showed me the choice that with which I felt so wrecked and torn, lay upon a path that God paved the day you were born. So as I lay you down to sleep your eternal spirit shines And our paths will cross again someday....Dearest Brother of mine The last words David said to me was.. "Its going to be alright " that was the kind of person he was thinking of me instead of himself. I can only strive to be like him. I love you David you are in my heart forever...Margie

“ Life takes us all down different roads. Each of us learn things from the people who are around us as we grow up. As a child I always looked up to uncle David. He always seemed to have his priorities in line. He was dedicated to his wife, his work, and everyone he loved.
Although I wasn't able to visit much in the last few years, David has always been in my thoughts and prayers. He will be greatly missed.
I love you uncle David.
