“ David had a twinkle in his eye that meant he was about to make you laugh at something ridiculous. And you were GONNA laugh, he would make sure of it. I will always remember the times he'd whoop and holler thru the barns trying to make a crazy job more fun. He'd give you the shirt off his back and even let me wear his boots a few times when I didn't have any. I'll never forget that. Thanks, David. :)
