“ I read the obituary and saw that Donna and Karen are sisters. I did not know that. My sincere wishes for sympathy for Karen and Donna. Donna, I could not have gotten through Larry dying without you. I miss seeing you and talking to you. I love you both. My sincere wishes for the best to all the family. Donna -- I will be moving with Derrick to Roanoke. The railroad has transferred him there. They are house hunting this weekend. My prayers are with you all.
