“ My deepest sympathy to Denise's family and know that she is in such a better place. I did not know Denise that well but she seemed so caring and loving. I did not know she was that ill for she never let anyone know. Sweet Denise, you are smiling down on us and letting us know how wonderful it is with our precious Jesus. God Bless you and also your family and friends. Hugs

“ I met Denise in September 2005 in KFED our little online discussion group after Kathy who started KFED invited me.

I quickly learned that she was one of the sweetest, kindest, most spirit filled Christians I ever met. Denise in her soft sweet way was an inspiration to not only me but everybody in the group.

Once when I was going thru yet another of my trials Denise name popped in my mind as the one to ask for prayer because I knew she knew Jesus personally. We chatted in the messenger and she prayed for me. I was deeply touched.

But as we finished she finally confided that she also needed prayer as she was very ill. She rarely let on to anyone that she was that sick. She was the first to post a beautiful birthday greeting when it was my birthday or any other member of KFED. HEr work and love of KFED was aparent and we will miss our Denise.

To Denise family and friends who knew her longer. I know you have heard kind words and they are sincere, I know. I wish I had known Denise and loved her as long as you lucky folks did.

God bless you all.

Sabrina in Texas blessed by Denise beyond words.

Denise I know you see this from Heavens windows. I hope you know how much you touched my life with your love of Jesus and life. We shared our love of our pet kids. We will meet face to face in Heaven. Where we will be whole and filled with joy!

Dear Jesus,

Hold our Denise a while till she is rested then show her the river of life. Love always your humble daughter and servant.

“ I WILL REMEMBER YOU

I WILL REMEMBER YOU WHEN FLOWERS BLOOM, EARLY IN THE SPRING.

I WILL REMEMBER YOU ON SUNNY DAYS, IN THE FUN THAT SUMMER BRINGS.

I WILL REMEMBER YOU IN THE FALL AS YOU WALK THROUGH THE LEAVES OF GOLD.

AND IN THE WINTERTIME, I WILL REMEMBER YOU IN THE STORIES THAT ARE TOLD.

BUT MOST OF ALL I WILL REMEMBER EACH DAY- RIGHT FROM THE START- THAT YOU WILL BE FOREVER NEAR, FOR YOU LIVE WITHIN MY HEART.

DENISE HELPED ME WITH THE DISCUSSION GROUP KFED, RIGHT FROM DAY #1. SHE WAS ALWAYS WILLING TO BE HELPFUL AND HOLD ME UP WHEN WE RAN INTO A HITCH. OUR GROUP'S SUCCESS IS IN PART, DUE TO HER CONTRIBUTION.

MAY HER FAMILY & FRIENDS GAIN STRENGTH IN KNOWING GOD'S LOVE FOR HER AND THE LOVE OF PEOPLE WHOM SHE TOUCHED.

love from KATHY (kfed)

“ It was hard to loss Grandma and it was very difficult to lose my mother both Denise's Mother and Sister, but I have a greater loss than any by the lose of my dear Sister/Aunt.

I thank each of you so much for your friendship, love and prayers. I knew how special Denise was, I am just so happy so many others knew that also.

As I read the tribute to Denise that Yorka, her dear friend asked me to read at her memorial service, I will think of all of her many internet friends and family and I will remember each of you in prayer. Please remember all of us in Prayer also.

Please feel free to call me, write me or e-mail any time. I will try to post some pictures as soon as possible.

Thank each of you in this difficult time but we each know that Denise is in a better place and is once again walking and enjoying life as she so richly deserves.

*Love U all!
Love & Prayers!*

“ I knew the family when they all lived in Cleveland. I knew Dinah and her mother Ann, best. I am so sorry to here of her death. We just talked online about two weeks ago. she told me her eyes was bothering her again. I am sure she knew the Lord, we talked about that. I know she is happy to be with her mother and dad and sister and brother. She will be missed Glyn Stewart

“ My Sis Denise and I, we supported each other. It always seemed like when I was down she would help me up. And when she was down I would do like wise for her. Though not a sister by birth she is as my birth sister in my heart.

I am happy for her. She now roams the hills and valleys of Heaven with her Mom, Sister, and my Mom too.

I do know for a fact that she is there. The last time we talked on the phone Jesus revealed to her his most deepest secret. Which can be found in St. John 1:1-14 and St. John 14:5-9. So I have no doubt as to where she is now. But our tears still fall like rain when we think of the lonely hours that we have ahead of us.

It's never easy to let them go. But like I always told her when we face hard things like this, and we find that we can't do it on our own. That's when our Heavenly Papa comes down and carries us until we are able to stand on our own again.

Often, as we would pray together on the phone, we could both feel Jesus' arms around us. Miles nor death can not separate two hearts that Jesus has joined as family.

It helps too, to think of her not as dead, just moved on ahead. Which is true for those who love Jesus and truly have him in their heart as she did NEVER die. They live on forever in paradise.

á

We often talked about Heaven and what it was like. It's not at all what folks think it to be. Most imagine an endless void of billowy clouds, mansions and such things. But it's not like that at all. My Sis Denise as well as my Mom could never be happy living in a mansion.

á

Heaven is your best imagined idea of a place where you could truly find happiness. For my Mom it was a small cottage with a beautiful flower garden. Surrounded by a white picket fence, with a stream of water running by loaded with fish. And most especially to be surrounded by those that had gone on before her. I imagine that My Sis Denise is in much the same type of place.

á

She often talked of wanting to be with her Mom. Jesus has finally granted her request.

I can see her face as he appeared in the room. And the surprised look when he called to her and she stood with no pain or trouble at all. Then took that first step toward Jesus as he took her hand in his.

A tear was in her eye as she took time to give one last pet for Willow and Bear. Blessings in the form of a cat and a dog that Jesus gave to her. And yet another tear slid down her cheek as she thought of those she was leaving behind.

"Come Daughter." Jesus said. "It's time to go." Then she stepped through the veil entering her Mother's arms with tears of joy flooding down her cheeks.

Now she is truly happy. She knows no more pain or disappointment. Only the eternal state of joy, peace, and happiness that Jesus had originally planned for his children to know. And she walks and runs where ever she will. No need of a wheel chair there.

The veil that separates us now is so thin. But unless we accept Jesus into our heart, we will never see her again. The next minute you are NOT guaranteed. So accept him now, while you may. For tomorrow may be too late!

Now you wonder how I know all of this to be true. I saw it take place as Jesus comforted me yesterday after I heard the news. And now I in turn comfort you.

My heart and prayers are with all of you.

á

Jesus watch over you and keep you safe and happy always.

á
*Love you,
Yorka*
