“ Because of the holidays, we did not know of Dennis' passing until last night. We are deeply saddened to find our neighbor no longer with us. In the 48 years we've lived here, Dennis and Steve and their entire family have been friends and good neighbors. A few years ago, when Don suffered a back injury, Dennis brought firewood to us. Another time he stopped by to give us fertile soil from his worm colony to feed our tomatoes. More recently he stopped by to ask questions about starting a silk-screening business, and the last time we spoke with him he told us that the business was finally coming together. Even though the road was paved a few years ago, and traffic traveled faster, Dennis would often stop to chat or toot his horn in passing. We know that you, Jennifer, and Steve and Dawneda, and Vivian and Garland, will miss him dearly, as will we. We are so sorry.
