“ To the Counts Family,

I am so sorry to read of the passing of Dexter. We went to Haysi High School together and I will always remember him as such a kind fun guy that enjoyed the company of others. His laugh was infectious. May God wrap you all up in his arms during this very painful time of your life. Never stop remembering him and always always share your memories with each other and others, it will not erase the loss you feel but it will give you comfort. Sincerely, Debbie Boyd Oquinn (Bee, VA now Lebanon, VA)
