

Dickie McGee

July 26, 1941 - January 30, 2015

Martin E. "Dickie" McGee, age 73, of Pounding Mill, Virginia, passed away Friday, January 30, 2015 in a Kingsport, Tennessee hospital.

He was born in Richlands, Virginia and was the son of the late E.E. and Mattie Ella Ringstaff McGee.

He was a lifelong resident of the Richlands area and was a local businessman having been a former owner and operator of several convenience and grocery stores. He also owned and operated and leased several coal mining operations. He was a graduate of Richlands High School Class of 1959 and attended Bluefield College. He was a proud supporter of Richlands High School athletics and was an avid Virginia Tech and L.A. Dodger fan. He was an accomplished athlete at Richlands High School in both basketball and football, earning all-area and all county honors in both. He officiated high school basketball and was a former member of the Appalachian Officials Association. Dickie unselfishly gave to those in need especially to children in need of coats around Christmas time. His two grandsons were the joy of his life and he was a devoted family man who loved his family dearly.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one son, Nicholas Blake McGee; and two sisters, Jean M. Reynolds and Patsy Ringstaff.

Survivors are:

His wife of 55 years, Judy M. McGee

Son: Jimmy McGee and wife, Jennifer of Richlands, Virginia

Grandsons: Gunner McGee and Keegan McGee

Nephews: John White and wife, Sherry; Terry Ringstaff and wife, Kim; Scotty Ringstaff and wife, Diane; Tony Ringstaff and wife, Jennifer; and Brent Reynolds and wife, Carmella

“ Mrs. Judy, Jimmy & family, the Big Blues has lost one of their biggest supporters. If there is a Hall of Fame in Heaven Dickie is in it. He was always there when we needed anything at the high school and he was there every time the doors or gates opened to give his loyal support to the students and coaches of RHS. Jill and I will keep all of you in our prayers.
