“ Brian, Taylor, Ruth, Ronnie & Family,

I am so sorry that I couldn't be there for you. My heart goes out to all of you. I was sitting here thinking of Doddie and I keep seeing all those (I think) Leif Garrett posters that used to hang on her bedroom wall and hearing all those crazy 70's records we used to play. I remember all those Norris Lake trips we made in the back of Pa's truck. 8 or 9 screaming cousins fighting all the way there. Doddie gave all of us some great memories. I will miss her so much.

*Taylor,
Your mom was a very special person and you were her life. Every single ounce of happiness in her life was because of you. She was so proud of you and she bragged about you all the time. Her family was her entire world and you were #1 to her. Please remember that she loves you with all her heart & soul. She's your Angel now and she will always be looking over you. She is still with you and don't forget she always will be.*

*I love you all,
angel*

“Doddie was an awesome person to both my son and I. She had such a love for life and for the people and things in her life. Doddie helped me more than anyone can ever know when I went through my situation earlier this year. She lent advice and offered a shoulder and an ear and cared from deep within her heart. Although I only knew Doddie for a little over a year she really touched my heart and my life and that of my son as well. For she was his doddie and her and taylor were his favorite girlfriends and doddie loved him as much as he loved her. Although at 4 years old he don't understand death and says that he hopes doddie is making snowcones for god in heaven like she did for him and taylor, on hot afternoons. Doddie made my wedding day a very special one as well as she only had 2 days to prepare she could have found a million different tthings to do I am sure but she showed up at the church and did my hair and make up and overall boosted my self-esteem as a new bride. I love doddie and am so sorry for the loss I guess though it is really true that God Only Takes The BEST!!! for he got the best in Mrs. Doddie Carol Sparks. Brian if you or Tayler need anything let me know I love u guys both

“Bran & Tayler Marie. You had a wonderful wife and mother. You will always have them in your heart and soul. I lost my mother a month or so ago, and I talk to her all the time. But, of course, there is silence. When I talk to her, I know from experience what she would have had to say. Just hang in there and be tuff, you'll see her again. Thats one nice thought. You have some great relatives close that you can confide with when needed.

“ I have just returned from the funeral home and wanted to express again how sorry I am for your family's loss. I want to thank you all for always greeting me with a smile and a hug. I was greeted at the door when I arrived home by my youngest son, Joey. He wanted to know if I had seen my friend and all I could reply was yes. I have not explained to him that she has earned her wings and is an angel in heaven as she was on earth. He had seen me in tears all week and wanted to know why. So, I told him all about Doddie. I told him about the girl I used to be in Kentucky and my friend Doddie. I shared with him all the silly things we did and the secrets that only she and I shared. He promised to keep them and not to tell Mamaw Ramey that I had snuck out a time or two. My memories of Doddie have been and always will be of a loving, caring, funny, kind hearted , bubbly person. I have been blessed by knowing her and will cherish my memories of her forever in my heart.

“ Doddie meant so much to me. I loved her with all my heart. She was more like a sister to me than a cousin. So many wonderful memories I have of her that I will always cherish. I thank God so much that he let me see her again before she got so sick and he took her home to be with him. Just one week prior, and that day was so special. I cherish it more that words could ever express. Brian, Taylor, Ruth, Ronnie and Family I am sorry I could not be there for you but know that my every thought and my Prayers are there with you. I know God will comfort you and give you strength through this. I Love You All With All My Heart. With Deepest Sympathy,

“ "I'M STILL HERE"

Friend, please don't mourn for me I'm still here, though you don't see

I'm right by your side each night and day and within your heart I long to stay.

My body is gone but I'm always near. I'm everything you feel, see or hear.

My spirit is free, but I'll never depart as long as you keep me alive in your heart.

I'll never wander out of your sight-I'm the brightest star on a summer night.

I'm never be beyond your reach-

I'm the warm moist sand when you're at the beach I'm the colorful leaves when fall comes around and the pure white snow that blankets the ground. I'm the beautiful flowers of which you're so fond,

The clear cool water in a quiet pond.

I'm the first bright blossom you'll see in the spring, The first warm raindrop that April will bring.

I'm the first ray of light when the sun starts to shine, and you'll see that the face in the moon is mine.

When you start thinking there's no one to love you, You can talk to me through the Lord above you.

I'll whisper my answer through the leaves on the trees, and you'll feel my presence in the soft summer breeze.

I'm the hot salty tears that flow when you weep and the beautiful dreams that come while you sleep.

I'm the smile you see on a baby's face.

Just look for me , friend, I'm everyplace!
