“ I met Dottie at the Court. She was quite an interesting individual. At first she would just look at me and continue to walk, a common daily activity for her. As time went on, Dottie would come up to me and stand and stare. Eventually, she even let me feed her. People spoke highly of Dottie and her career saying that Dottie gave alot to her community prior to her illness. Even after Dottie's illness and given circumstance she gave me many blessings and I wanted to pass that along.

“ I have survived a very serious illness over the past year which Dottie learned about on my facebook page. She followed my progress and constantly provided me with words of encouragement. I will miss hearing from her but I know she will be watching over us all from heaven.

“ To the Wingo family,

I was so saddened to read in Roanoke paper of Dottie's death. Although we worked together at RMH in early 70's we remained in contact over the years with our annual Christmas cards. I so looked forward to receiving the beautiful handwritten cards from Dottie. She was my mentor at RMH and such a dear friend. I know she will be missed. My condolences go out to the family that I know she dearly loved.

“ My condolences to Dottie's family. She was a very special friend when we were in high school & we remained in touch periodically over the years. Although she'll be missed, she is at peace & released from her earthly bonds. May the following quote give you commfort:

"Weep, but briefly, for your loved one as she enters the into the Kingdom of God. For she shall possess a joy and peace that is unattainable on God's earthly realm. Rather, rejoice in her everlasting and total happiness, for her eyes have seen God."

“ Dottie was a wonderful advocate for nursing home residents. She initiated the Roanoke Chapter of TLC 4 Long Term Care Residents and worked tirelessly to improve the conditions in nursing homes. I know I speak for all of us in our organization when I say that she was a friend who will be sorely missed.
